THE NEW COMMITTEE

TO BE ELECTED BY DEMOCRATIC WARD-MEETINGS TUESDAY NIGHT. The Time and Pinces of Assembling Choose the Rest Men-An Address from Superintendent Flournoy.

Tuesday night the Democrats of Richnond will elect a new City Democratic mmittee, whose term of service will be gin the 1st of July, and for that purpose all the wards will hold meetings. These meetings will be called to order by the rective ward superintendents at 8:30 P. and remain open for one hour, and each ward will elect five members of the ommittee, which consists of thirty in all A number of the best men on the old committee have signified their intention not to stand for re-election.

ME. FLOURNOT'S ADDRESS.

ME. FLOURNOY'S ADDRESS.

The Jefferson-Ward meeting will be held at Old-Market Hall, and in view of the frauds perpetrated in that ward at the late municipal primary, Mr. Flournoy, the ward superintendent, has issued the following address:

RICHMOND, VA., June 25, 1892.

Richmond, Va., June 25, 1572.

Attention, Democra's of Jefferson Ward:
Assemble at Old-Market Hall, corner Seventeenth and Main streets, Tuesday the 25th of June, at 8.30 P. M., for the purpose of electing five citizens to represent you in the City Central Committee for the next two years.

Your duty is plain. It behooves every true Democrat in this ward to be present at this meeting.

The eyes of the entire State are upon this city, and especially upon Jefferson Ward, owing to the trouble in our late primary election. Do not understand me as reflecting on any member of the present City Committee, but I urge you to come out and send to the new committee the best and most representative men. In a few short weeks the election of a President will occur, and who can tell that the result may not to a very considerable extent depend upon your next City Committee? They are the officers and leaders who will on the 8th of November next marshal lichmond's great host of Democratic voters, and who will be expected to lead them to victory. at this meeting.
The eyes of the entire State are upon this them to victory.

Do your duty, Democrats, and attend this meeting.

James F. Flournov,
Superintendent Jefferson Ward. Superintendent Jesserson Ward.

Mr. Flournoy said yesterday to a Disparent reporter that he intended to have the votes for committeemen counted in open meeting; further, that he did not intend to stand for re-election, and that he wanted to make his last act as superintendent the best of his administration by getting out a full expression of the choice of his ward for committeemen.

THE OTHER MEETINGS. The Marshall-Ward meeting —F. A. Bowry, ward superintendent —will be held at Corcoran Hall. Twenty-fifth street between Broad and Marshall, and the Jackson-Ward meeting will take place in the Hustings-Contr room. W. T. Epps is superintendent.

ent. The Madison-Ward meeting—J. T. Ferri-er, ward superintendent—will be at Sanger Hall,

Mr. Andrews Knocks Hlm Down for Justice Crutchfield was assaulted and knocked down by Mr. Jack Andrews at the Old Market yesterday morning about 8 o'clock. His Honor, as is customary with him, had gone down to purchase his household supplies for the day and had started to take a car to go up to the Police Court when he met Mr. Andrews and greeted him, he says, pleasantly, having no idea that he was going to be attacked. Hardly had the Justice passed Mr. Andrews when the latter dealt him a heavy blow, which had the Police Justice on the curbstone. Mr. Andrews then proceeded to beat Justice Crutchfield while he was on the ground, inflicting several cuts and bruises about the face. Fining His Son.

THE PARKER BATTERY REUNION-The Members of the Association to Spend

The Parker Battery Association have arranged for their annual reunion next Tuesday at their old camp-ground at the Howlett House, on the James. By an order of Major (Dr.) Parker, the president, the association will assemble at the office of Captain J. Thompson Brown at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, whence they and their guests will be conveyed to camp on the Howlett line, below Richmond. The association owns the ground, on which their battery, flanked on either side by the gallant Fifteenth and Seventeenth Virginia Regiments, so defiantly stood the storm of shot and shell from the heavy ordnance of navy and army combined and concentrated at this point, rendering both by day and night the Howlett House and its surroundings one of the most exposed portions of our lines. Major-General Stephen D. Lee, Colonel E. P. Alexander, and Colonel Frank Huger, their former battalion commanders, are always invited to these happy reunions, and when not present in person they are by letters, which never fail to inspire the boys with the greatest enthusiasm for their old distinguished commanders.

General Lee has said this battery won him his spurs on more than one occasion, and while he was complimenting them for their grand work on the battle-field of Sharpsburg he unknowingly furnished them a text for the history of their battery, written by one of its privates, Royall W. Figg. In front of the remnants of his battalion General Lee rode to this battery, and in words heard all along the lines he said: "You are called the boy battery, but to go."

Pastops Academy.

The 'session of that excellent and high-grade institution of learning Pantops Academy, near Charlottesville, which has just closed, was one of the most successful in its history. An examination of its catalogue shows that during the year it drew its patronage from fourteen States and from Stam, Japan, Brazil, and Mexico, and that even before the session was opened every place was taken. As an evidence of the thorough work done by Mr. John R. Sampson, the principal, and his assistant it may be stated that the University of Virginia catalogues show that no students stand higher than those it draws from Pantops. On last university commencementday five professional and academical degrees besides numerous diplomas were awarded Pantops representatives. Mr. J. B. Woods, of Pantops, took his Master's degree; Mr. Hamilton P. Howard, of Baltimore; C. H. C. Preston, of Abingdon, and W. Hampton Venable, of Danville, took the degree of M. D., and Mr. J. Randolph Bryan, of Albemarle, took the degree of B. J. There were in all sixteen Pantops men at the university, and all reflected high credit upon their academy.

Hustings Court Yesterday.

Frank N. Siayton, the young man from Baltimore who was arrested here for forgery several weeks ago, was on yesterday adjudged insane by the jury of the Hustings Court and remanded to jail for temporary keeping. When his case was called Rosewell Page, Esq., appeared as his counsel, and entered a plea of mental aberration. An examination was gone into in this direction, and Drs. Gordon, Jud. B. Wood, L. M. Cowardin, Major Robert Stiles, and Mr. L. F. Bossieux testified that they did not consider the young man to be possessed of a sound mind. Several other witnesses testified that Slayton had always shown signs of being slightly demented, and the jury returned a verdict as above noted.

The other cases heard by Judge Witt yesterday were the following:

Lynn Sheppard, house-breaking and larceny. Fined one cent and sentito jail for thirty days. Another little boy charged with the same offence was discharged.

Thomas Jefferson, assaulting Warren Wormley. Twelve months in jail and one cent fine. Jefferson pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying a concealed weapon and was fined $20.

The case of James H. Jenkins, charged with obtaining money under false pretences, was postponed until July 6th.

Washington. D. C., and will hereafter be located at 1300 Pennsyl ania arenue (Richin mond and Danville railroad building):

James L. Taylor, general passenger agent;
J. P. Minetree, general purchasing agent;
C. A. Darlton, superintendent telegraph, together with the car-record and mileage department.
